Strategic Key Account Relationship Mapping & Executive Engagement Program Orange, Deutsche Telekom, Telefónica and CK Hutchison / H3G

To strengthen Huawei' s executive engagement and strategic positioning with Deutsche Telekom, Orange, Telefónica and CK Hutchison (H3G), I propose establishing a structured Strategic Key Account Relationship & Executive Engagement Program. The objective is to build and continuously maintain a dynamic executive relationship map, understand the customer decision-making ecosystem, identify key influencers and successors, measure Huawei' s relationship coverage, and implement a proactive executive engagement plan. The program should cover both Group Headquarters and priority OpCos.

1. Executive Relationship, Successor and Leadership pipeline mapping

For each operator group and key OpCos, a comprehensive executive relationship map is displayed below.

The mapping identifies:

- Current decision makers
- Key influencers
- Procurement stakeholders
- Internal champions
- Potential blockers
- Executive assistants and gatekeepers
- Existing Huawei sponsors

1.1 ORANGE

2. Decision-Making and Influence Chain Mapping

Purpose

This assessment is designed to systematically map the Device Business decision-making process across each strategic domain — Devices, AI, Cloud, Consumer Business, Ecosystem and Procurement —, executive landscape, governance forums, procurement influence, approval chains, successor planning, Huawei relationship coverage, and executive engagement opportunities. The output will support executive relationship mapping, decision-chain mapping, relationship reach-rate dashboards, succession planning and annual executive engagement programs.

Key dimensions addressed to be fulfilled by Key Account:

1. Key Account Overview

Capture Operator Group, OpCos covered, Huawei Account Director, reporting period, executive sponsor, overall account health and strategic priorities.

2. Executive Landscape Mapping

Map Group and OpCo executives including CEO, CFO, CTO, CIO, Procurement, Device, Consumer, Innovation and Strategy leaders. Assess influence, Huawei relationship status, sponsor and priority.

3. Decision-Making Chain Mapping

Document complete decision chain from CEO to operational decision owners. Include approval routes for devices, AI, ecosystem and procurement.

4. Stakeholder Categorization

Classify all stakeholders as Decision Maker, Influencer, Gatekeeper, Champion or Opponent/Blocker.

5. Strategic Domain Decision Ownership

Document ownership and approval process for Smartphones, Devices, AI, Customer Experience, Cloud, Ecosystem and Procurement.

6. Governance and Approval Forums

Identify Executive Committees, Commercial Boards, Technology Boards, Procurement Boards, Investment Committees, Innovation Councils and Security Boards.

7. Device Business Approval Process

Document smartphone portfolio approval, ranging decisions, subsidy approvals, vendor onboarding and contract signature workflows.

8. Strategic Decision Chain Mapping by Domain

Map Devices, AI, Cloud, Ecosystem and Procurement decision chains and identify key approval gates.

10. Huawei Relationship Coverage

Assess CEO, Board, CTO, Procurement, Device Business, Innovation and OpCo access. Calculate Relationship Reach Rate.
